Time and Place: Spain, during the Spanish Inquisition

NOTE.—Before her marriage to Phillip of Spain, Isabella and Don Carlos were in love, having grown up from childhood together. When she became Queen for reasons of State, Rodrigo advised Don Carlos to leave Spain. Don Carlos seeks an audience with the Queen to obtain Phillip's permission, and at the audience, their love is renewed.

Princess Eboli, becoming aware of this, jealously informs the King, who imprisons Don Carlos. When Rodrigo visits him there, he is shot by Phillip's orders, suspecting him of complicity. Don Carlos, then given his freedom, makes a tryst with the Queen, and on being discovered, is handed over by the King to the Inquisition, from which he is snatched at the last moment by Phillip's father, the Emperor, who now discloses his identity.
